

WILLS AND ESTATE LAW - Practice Gems: Probate Essentials 2019

Tuesday, September 10, 2019 (09:00 AM-12:00 PM)

2 h 30 m Substantive - 30 m Professionalism

Description: It's next to impossible to foresee every contingency when probating a will. That said, you can always make sure you're thoroughly prepared; our presenters can help with that. They explore ways to anticipate complications, and then strategies to effectively mitigate them when they happen. Additionally, you receive invaluable practical precedents to help you with your next probate file.

ESTATE LAW - Practice Gems: Administration of Estates 2019

Tuesday, September 10, 2019 (01:00 PM-04:00 PM)

2 h 30 m Substantive - 30 m Professionalism

Description: Administering an estate is almost never as straightforward as you expect. Many times, there are complications. Our presenters are expert estates and trusts lawyers who review the basic elements of estate administration and let you know about the common pitfalls and how to avoid them. You also receive an annotated administration checklist to help you develop your own customized tools and keep track of critical steps.

CIVIL LAW - The Twelve-Minute Civil Litigator 2019

Thursday, September 12, 2019 (09:00 AM-12:00 PM)

2 h 30 m Substantive – 30 m EDI Professionalism

Description: Concise. Insightful. Comprehensive. In short, a Twelve-Minute program is the fast track to all the recent developments in your area of law. We capture a variety of perspectives by drawing from a pool of presenters, and each one gets to the point within minutes. You always receive materials that explore the topics in greater detail and take away practical tips and advice you might not get elsewhere. The half-day programs of our Twelve-Minute series make sure you're up to the challenges of a busy litigation practice

REAL ESTATE LAW - Commercial Priorities for Real Estate and Business Lawyers 2019

Monday, October 28, 2019 (09:00 AM-12:00 PM)

2 h 30 m Substantive - 30 m Professionalism

Description: The status of the country's economy is difficult to assess from day to day—sometimes it's good, the next day, not so much. Given this volatility, it's likely that your clients may need to enforce their security interests in the foreseeable future. They may even be the target of a creditor's enforcement actions. That's why a clear understanding of commercial priorities is critical to your clients' well-being. Our presenters are experienced practitioners who help you refine your knowledge of commercial priorities: how to protect an owner's investment in a business (making the owner a priority creditor), how to deal with aggressive mortgagees, plus the latest on the ongoing saga of deemed trusts outside of insolvency and the Callidus Capital Corporation case, and much more.

REAL ESTATE LAW - Cannabis Issues (and Answers) for Real Estate and Business Lawyers

Monday, October 28, 2019 (01:00 PM-04:00 PM)

3 h Substantive

Description: Welcome to the new normal. It's been one year since the legalization of cannabis, and we have a clearer picture of the impact of this change on real estate and commercial transactions—it has been significant and continues to play out in sometimes unexpected ways. It's time to adjust your practice accordingly. Our presenters delve into the changing face of cannabis law, with insights on how to deal with this new, shifting reality. To be successful, your real estate and business law practice needs to remain nimble and responsive to the times. This program is designed to help you make it so.

EMPLOYMENT LAW - 20th Employment Law Summit
Friday, November 1, 2019 (09:00 AM-04:00 PM)
5 h Substantive 1 h Professionalism.

Description: Our working lives are getting longer, either due to economic need or individual choice, and the nature of what it means to be an "employee" continues to evolve. Variety and innovation in the types of employment relationships—contract, gig, permanent, part-time—are the new normal. Keep yourself up to date on the critical new cases and important changes to legislation in employment law. Whether you represent employers or employees—or both—our panels of expert practitioners deliver practical, concise analysis of the year's need-to-know developments.

IMMIGRATION LAW - 27th Immigration Law Summit (TWO DAY SUMMIT)
Wednesday, November 6, 2019 and Thursday, November 7th, 2019 (09:00 AM-04:30 PM)
5 h Substantive - 1 h 30 m Professionalism

Description: It caught no one by surprise when last year's chairs remarked that immigration law is a growing and challenging area of practice. Those who practise in this area know this is true. To that end, we've ensured that this two-day summit covers all the latest developments in this dynamic area of law. Take this opportunity to meet with and hear from your peers and to learn what you need to know in this must-attend program for immigration and refugee lawyers and paralegals.

REAL ESTATE LAW - The Six-Minute Real Estate Lawyer 2019
Tuesday, November 19, 2019 (09:00 AM-01:00 PM)
3 h 30 m Substantive 30 m Professionalism

Description: Year in, year out, our Six-Minute series is the go-to one for the busy legal practitioner. The time limit for each speaker ensures concise, compelling presentations with keen analysis on developments in your area of law. We draw from a pool of presenters to capture a range of perspectives, and you always receive materials that explore each topic in greater depth. To continue to serve your clients to the best of your ability and meet the challenges in your practice, a half-day Six-Minute program is just what you need.

REAL ESTATE LAW - Safeguarding Real Estate Transactions 2019
Tuesday, November 19, 2019 (02:00 PM-05:00 PM)
2 h 30 m Substantive 30 m Professionalism

Description: In real estate, any mention of litigation is rarely considered good news. It often means financial trouble, on one side or the other. Are you prepared for the possibility of litigation relating to one of your files? Do you know what steps should be taken to best protect yourself and your client? Our presenters are litigators and real estate practitioners who show you how it's done right. Learn what "time of the essence" and the "entire agreement clause" really mean, plus a focus on "does the vendor have to disclose," and much more

FAMILY LAW - The Six-Minute Family Law Lawyer 2019

Monday, December 2, 2019 (09:00 AM-12:30 PM)

3 h Substantive 30 m Professionalism

Description: Concise. Insightful. Comprehensive. In short, a Six-Minute program is the fast track to all the recent developments in your area of law. We capture a variety of perspectives by drawing from a pool of presenters, and each one covers the salient points within minutes. You always receive materials that explore the topics in greater detail and take away practical tips and advice you might not get elsewhere. The half-day programs of our Six-Minute series make sure you're up to the challenges of a busy legal practice.

CRIMINAL LAW - Impaired and "Over 80" 2019

Saturday, December 7, 2019 (09:00 AM-12:30 PM)

3 h Substantive 30 m Professionalism

Description: In late 2018, Bill C-46 came into force, dramatically transforming how lawyers prosecute and defend those charged with impaired driving offences. Police will now have the power to demand roadside breath samples from drivers regardless of whether they suspect alcohol consumption. Drivers can be charged for failing a breathalyzer test up to two hours after driving. Our presenters go over the changes in detail and describe how the courts have dealt with the new provisions so that you're fully equipped to handle your busy season.